

CHULA VISTA MASS TRANSIT OPPORTUNITIES

CHULA VISTA BUS TRANSPORTATION

Chula Vista Transit is a City-operated system providing bus service on twelve routes throughout Chula Vista. Mass transit ridership Citywide was over 3.2 million last year, an increase of 6.1% over the previous year. Weekday bus schedules are designed to meet the needs of commuting passengers. Buses, trains and trolleys criss-cross the San Diego region, making travel accessible and economical for commuters. Chula Vista Transit, National City Transit, San Diego County Transit, San Diego Transit, and the San Diego Trolley provide transit services in the metropolitan San Diego area.

SAN DIEGO TROLLEY

The San Diego Metropolitan Transit Development Board (MTDB) provides light rail, or trolley, service from the international border at San Ysidro, through Chula Vista, to downtown San Diego, the Convention Center, Qualcomm Stadium and east to the suburbs of El Cajon and Santee. Chula Vista has three trolley stations, all located in the western part of Chula Vista where the trolley line parallels Interstate-5 – Bayfront/E Street Station, H Street Station and Palomar Station. Planned extensions of the San Diego Trolley include eventual service to the Otay Ranch communities in eastern Chula Vista.
